Do you have a way of working with chronic pain that is innovative and prize-winning?

TELL US ABOUT YOUR PROJECT AND WIN!

Active Citizenship Network is launching the "EU Civic Prize on Chronic Pain - Collecting good practices". The aim is to highlight existing good practices working against pain around Europe.

The categories for the good practices are:

• Patients' empowerment

Good practices such as creating information/information campaigns or supporting and capacity-building for individual patients. This also includes partnerships with various stakeholders to empower patients so that they can understand their rights and make informed choices.

• Innovation (legislative and technological)

Good practices concerning: laws, technologies, apps, etc.

• Professional education

Undergraduate and postgraduate education for healthcare professionals, training courses in the hospitals/clinics, updating general practitioners, etc...

• Clinical practices

Good practices concerning: pain management (prevention, diagnosis, treatment and monitoring), dedicated units, therapeutic pathways, clinical records, ways of measuring pain, etc.

A Jury, composed of international experts on chronic pain (from universities, healthcare professionals and providers' organisations, civic and patients' associations etc..) will choose the winners.

The winners will be given an expenses-paid visit to another winner and a publication in English in a suitable journal.

Closing date for receiving your submission is for all the 2016.

You can find the form to participate on www.activecitizenship.net
